Market Inactive.
Prices Steady.
Wood Oil Stocks.
Price Ideas Vary.
Rapeseeds Firm.

DEVELOPMENTS of importance in the China produce section are lacking. Business is generally of a conservative character, buyers being averse to anticipating to any extent. There is very little material change in the situation, consumers showing little inclination to increase their prices. Business is therefore rather slow. On the other hand, Shanghai prices are decidedly steady, and it does not seem that Chinese dealers would give in. Consumers are still disposed in many cases to adhere to a cautious attitude in making purchases, and such sales as are noted are limited to small quantities.

General conditions in the market for miscellaneous oils, fats and greases this week are similar to those prevailing in the preceding weeks. Trade in these continues to drag, the general list continuing to be characterised by an easy tone.

The condition of the wood oil market appears to be steadier at times with the offerings generally light. This is due to the political unrest in the interior. The Hankow market is steady, supplies of spot oil having diminished. The demand at the same time is limited, consumers and dealers in many instances being disposed to await developments in the general situation both here and abroad. The political position is still unfavorable. Wood oil arriving both here and at American ports show a higher percentage of adulteration, in some cases as much as 50 percent adulterants has been noted. The better grade oil is commanding higher prices, but the market on the whole is unstable, fluctuations being too frequent.

Stocks of wood oil in Japan are reported small. The price is firm due to light stocks and the stoppage of seed arrivals from the upper reaches of the River Yangtsze. Japanese merchants in Hankow are not receiving the stocks of the oil covered in that province sometime ago. The situation in Hankow remains firm, and it is difficult to get the better grade in quantity. It seems certain that any slight buying movement would immediately result in much higher prices of wood oil, whereas the continued inactivity does not appear to result in lower prices.

The position of sesamum seeds has not changed materially but the market is firmer for the new crop, influenced by a somewhat

Oshima Island Disappears With 50,000 People

THE Island of Oshima, the largest of the Idzu group, lying 58 miles south of Yokonama, has sunk into the ocean carrying with it the entire population of over 50,000, according to dispatches to THE CHINA PRESS from the Eastern News Agency and other agencies.

The Eastern reports that the island cannot be seen and that another island has risen in the sea nearer Odawara, from where Oshima was plainly visible.

Reuter's carries a report that the island has been swallowed by the waters of the Pacific

The island, according to the Eastern News Agency, was 80 miles in circumference and had a population of over 50,000. Oshima was one of seven comprising the Idzu-no-shichi-to. It was the northernmost of the group and was remarkable for the smoking volcano Mihara-yama (2,461 feet). One has only to visualise such a mountain of rock and lava sinking or toppling into the sea, in order mentally to grasp the extent and violence of the disaster.

The Eastern News Agency late last night received a message from the Osaka Asahi confirming earlier reports that the island of Oshima had been swallowed by the sea, and also that all the cities, towns and villages covering the greater portion of the Idzu, Tokadeo, Boso and Miura peninsulas comprising a district ninety miles from north to south and one hundred and ten miles from east to west, had been destroyed. No estimate of the total loss of life has been received.

Weather

Fine, cool weather. The maximum temperature yesterday was 88.9 and the minimum 68.9, the figures for the corresponding day last year being 82.0 and 68.2.

Nagasaki, Sept. 4 11.00 a.m.—The Regent summoned Count Yamamoto today and gave him Yen. 100,000,000 for relief. The Regent expressed the greatest concern for the sufferers, and instructed the Government to unite in an effort to alleviate the suffering.

Relief funds are rapidly being gathered everywhere including Kobe where the foreign residents raised Yen. 50,000 in a few hours.

While all structures which modern architecture has created in Tokio have collapsed, the pagoda in Uyeno Park, which is about the only remnant of ancient architecture left in the city, is reported to be intact.

The Japanese people are grateful for the expressions of King George to the Emperor Yoshihito and of Signor Mussolini to Count Yamamoto. They also appreciated the kindly sentiment of the British and American press.

Athens, Sept. 4.—The American Colonel Lowe, director of relief and orphanages in Corfu, who has arrived here from Corfu with Greek officials and 60 expelled Greek soldiers, states that the number killed has now reached 20, nine of whom were killed outright and 32 wounded and now in hospital. Some fifty others were slightly wounded. All the killed and wounded are refugees or orphans from the American and British orphanages, housed in the old fortress. The fact that sixteen of the killed are children was due to several shells hitting the barracks used as orphanages, while sharpnel shells exploded on the waterfront of the fortress where 400 orphan boys were bathing.

Second Earthquake Rumors Are Denied By Observatory Here

Rumore that a second earthquake, even more serious than that of Saturday, had occurred yesterday in Japan gained frequency on the streets of Shanghai yesterday but were set definitely at rest when a statement branding them false was issued by Siccawei Observatory.

The rumors had it that a shock of extreme violence had been recorded on the seismograph at Siccawei.

"This report is without any foundation whatsoever," officials at the observatory said last night. "No shock has been recorded on the instruments here since those of Saturday. It is common at times of great catastrophes such as that in Japan that wild rumors gain circulation, but all information should be carefully weighed before it is given credence."

President Jefferson Sends First Direct Word From Yokohama Of Disaster

All Houses On Bluff Destroyed; American Consul And Wife Killed—No News Of Eisler, Congressman Ackerman Or American Officials

First direct word from Yokohama was received by the Admiral-Oriental Line offices here yesterday when the President Madison relayed a wireless message from the President Jefferson in Yokohama harbor.

The message confirms all previous reports that Yokohama and Tokio have been completely wiped out and that numerous towns in the surrounding district including Hakone, Miyanoshita and other summer resorts where hundreds of foreigners, including many Shanghai people or their relatives were spending vacations, are masses of ruins.

The message, just as it was received here, reads as follows:

Yokohama completely wiped out by earthquake and fire, Tokio and Yokosuho also. Refugees report Nisyanshita and Hakone also destroyed—Admiral Oriental Line office ruined—everything lost—all employees safe—do not accept traffic for Yokohama—but route all ships there to render all possible assistance—give supplies—returning Kobe with 350 destitute refugees — sailing Kobe-Seattle direct soon possible. Eisler last seen Grand Hotel whereabouts unknown — Ackerman unknown —Esting and wife safe aboard stop Fires are still burning—U. S. Consul at Yokohama and wife dead—casualties among foreigners very numerous publish list survivors arrival Kobe —Empress Australia Disabled Empress—(Canada ?) arrived Monday freight and also landing supplies and taking sick and wounded—all house on bluff and Grand Hotel Oriental are gone suggest —— Asiatic Fleet send fast ships at once relief urgently needed doctors—nurses and medical supplies—publish a navigation warning—all ships leaving light approaching Yokohama—are all out north of Nikimoto—except Ashita—unsafe approach inside breakwater Yokohama—bottom—come up—Jefferson.

News that the United States Consul at Yokohama and his wife had been killed was the first news of fatalities among foreigners. The name given in the dispatch of a Japanese news agency is Xavier Shiff. The American Consulate-General at Yokohama was destroyed. No news has been received of the fate of the other members of the staff believed to be Mr. H. T. Goodier, Mr. H. L. Broomal, Mr. Paul E. Jenks, Mr. E. R. Kellogg, Special Commissioner of the U. S. Treasury Department E. K. Hotaling, and Acting Consul-General and Mrs. Max D. Kirjassof.

The "Yokosuho" mentioned in the Jefferson's wireless is believed to mean the Yoksuka Naval Station, where the station buildings and hospital were burned.

OFFICE DESTROYED

The Admiral Oriental line offices, which were destroyed, were located at 75A Yamashitacho. The staff, which was saved and taken on board a vessel in the harbor, consisted of Mr. Don Tinling, agent, and Mr. L. Nietman, Mr. W. L. Petrie, and Mr. Fredrickson.

The information that Captain W. I. Eisler, Shanghai representative of the U. S. Shipping Board, "was seen at the Grand Hotel" is borne out by information given by officers of the President Madison, which arrived last night, that Capt. Eisler left the ship at Yokohama. Mrs. Eisler, who is in the United States, has had no word from him and has wired Shanghai for information.

The President Jefferson was supposed to have left Yokohama

All Tokio Bank Buildings Are Lost Completely

The following message has been received by The Far Eastern Review from its Tokio manager, Mr. H. C. Huggins:

"Office very badly damaged. House ruined. All bank buildings in Tokio and Yokohama completely destroyed. Funds unobtainable."

We are informed by Mr. Phil Rea of The Far Eastern Review that its Tokio offices were in the new Nippon Yusen Kaisha Building, the second largest office building in Japan, which was opened only a few months ago. Mr. Huggins' house was in Akasaka Ward. The message came from Karuizawa,

ALL NATIONALS HERE SPRING TO AID OF VICTIMS

Contributions To Relief Fund Coming In; Shipping Food Today

With all nationalities joining in the work of rendering aid to the suffering millions of earthquake victims in Japan the collection of funds, foodstuffs and medical supplies was begun in Shanghai yesterday, while at the same time representative officials, business men and relatives of many local people known to have been in the devastated district sailed from this port to do what they can to alleviate the distress and obtain information about the missing.

Acting under instructions from Washington, United States Consul-General Edwin S. Cunningham, United States Consul-General at Large Nelson T. Johnson, Vice-Consul J. T. Wright, Brigadier-General F. R. McCoy and Col George T. Langhorne, U.S.A., boarded the steamer President Pierce yesterday morning for Kobe and Yokohama. Gen. McCoy and Col. Langhorne had arrived here only the day before by the President Lincoln, en route to Manila to act as aides to Governor General Wood.

CALL FOR FUNDS

The call for funds with which to provide aid in whatever form required was issued yesterday by various of the established relief agencies and by emergency committees representing various nationalities. The desire of the community to do all in its power to help was immediately evidenced by several large contributions and while the aggregate thus far obtained is not known it is believed that the total was high, and the collection of a large Shanghai subscription is assured.

An especially strong Japanese committee, the American Association and Red Cross, a Portuguese committee, various Chinese organisations, including the special committee named on Monday, and other emergency or permanent bodies are actively engaged in the obtaining of funds.

COMMITTEE NAMED

The Japanese Committee, formed following a meeting of representatives of the Japanese Consulate-General, the Japanese Residents' Corporation and the Japanese Chamber of Commerce, includes the following: Mr. S. Yada, Consul-General for Japan; Mr. J. Noda, Vice-Consul; Mr. T. Kikuchi, Mr. T. Kawabata, and Mr. S. Tomono, Chairman, Vice-Chairman, and Treasurer of the Japanese Residents' Corporation; Mr. T. Shanghai, Sept. 4 (3 p.m.)—According to a special despatch to the Eastern News Agency from the Osaka 'Asahi,' the region between Tokio and Numadzu has been swept over by a heavy rain since yesterday and the scene there is a pitiful one.

The fire in Tokio was extinguished about the dusk yesterday but owing to want of water, food, and houses, one million and a half homeless people are now on the verge of starvation. The figures of dead are estimated at 150,000 in Tokio, 100,000 in Yokohama, 10,000 in Atami, and 60,000 in Yokosuka.

The devastated area in Tokio is some 3 miles in width, north to south, and 7 miles in length, east to west. This shows over a half of the total area of the capital. Osaka, Sept. 4 (3.30 p.m.)—The Island of Oshima off the Idzu Peninsula has disappeared.

The first photographs of the Tokio disasters have arrived in Osaka to the Asahi, which issued an extra edition. These photographs depict the terrible dstruction and the destitute refugees. One picture shows Tokio Observatory standing amid smoke and debris, the big clock outside having stopped at 11.58.

A member of the staff of the Tokio Asahi walked and motored half-way, and finally arrived in Osaka by rail. His observations en route indicate that the damage done by the earthquake outside Tokio and Yokohama is also most terrible. He relates a pathetic incident of an old woman who emerged from a shattered house, and, rushing up, enquired with the greatest anxiety: "What has become of my boy who is in Tokio."

Osaka, Sept. 4.—The newspapers which vigorously opposed the Yamamoto Cabinet now declare a truce and say that the nation must unite behind Count Yamamoto in his efforts to relieve the starving millions and to reconstruct the devastated capital.

(Nihon Dempo)

Tokio, Sept. 4.—A heavy rain began to fall in Tokio at six yesterday afternoon. The majority of people who are now practically homeless are thus exposed to another calamity. The result is the increase in the number of deaths. Ex-soldiers in Tokio, Kangawa, and three other neighboring prefectures have been mobilized. They are to attend to the distribution of food and the maintenance of order in the city.

YOKOHAMA MAYOR DEAD

September 4, 5.00 p.m.—Mr. Watanabe, mayor of Yokohama, who failed to get out of the city office at the time of the earthquake, is dead.

United States Consul in Yokohama, Mr. Zabler Shriff, together with Mrs. Shriff, was discovered among the dead.

It is reported that among those who have succumbed to the catastrophe are the American consul-general and his wife and the British consul-general there, and that many foreign residents in Yokohama are missing.

An exclusive despatch to the Eastern News Agency from the Osaka "Asahi" dated Osaka, September 4 (9 p.m.) reports:

Mrs. Fukuma of the Tokio Asahi who escaped from Tokio on September 1 at 10 p.m. ran along the Tokaido line for three nights and days and caught a train on the way, arriving in Osaka today at 9 a.m. Mr. Fukuma has brought with him pictures of the disaster in Tokio. According to his statement, all the towns and villages, through which he has past running, namely, Hachioji, Atsuki, Hiratsuka, Kodzu, Gotemba and other smaller villages have all been demolished. Mr. Fukuma left Tokio, after the offices of the Tokio "Asahi" had been enveloped by the flames, with the object of making a report to the Osaka "Asahi" about the pitiful sight of the capital and is the first man who has brought to Kwansai Districts pictures of the terrible sight of Tokio and vicinity.

Del Monte Giving Benefit For Japan

Del Monte Cafe announces a benefit for the Japan Relief Fund to be given next Friday night. One dollar admission will be charged and this together with 25 percent of the general receipts will be given to the fund. A special double performance, starting promptly at 10 o'clock, has been arranged. In addition to solos, duets, trios and quartettes, there will be two ballets with sixteen girls in each, and, we presume, the same sixteen in each. The ballets are called "The Oriental" and "The Gipsy's Dream."

American Asiatic Fleet To Help

Admiral M. E. Anderson, Commander-in-Chief of the American Asiatic fleet, has turned all of his ships—numbering over 30—over to the Japanese Admiralty to be used in relief work.

The 38th Division of destroyers—six ships—is due at Yokohama today. The destroyer Borie is already at Nagasaki.

Commander H. W. Browning, U. S. Paymaster here, informed The China Press last night that Admiral Anderson was proceeding to Yokohama on the flagship, the Huron, to assist in relief work, and that the Blackhawk had been ordered to Yokohama immediately. The Pecos, now en route to Manila, had been given orders to load supplies immediately and return to Yokohama.

Airplane Pilot Views Devastation

(Nihon Dempo)

Osaka, Sept. 4.—Sergeant Iwaya, who left Tokorozawa, near the capital, at half past eight this morning, arrived safely in Osaka at 12:40, after successfully dropping on its way at Kagamigahara and Kyoto tubes that contained reports. The sergeant brought with him many important documents addressed to the commander of the Fourth Division, the commander of Yura Fort, and the mayor of Osaka.

The sergeant says that another airplane piloted by sergeant Nishijima was to start immediately after him, bringing may pictures of the scenes of disaster. The pitiful plight in the devastated areas, he says, indeed surpasses by far what have been reported in newspapers. Sensational rumors are being circulated widely. In some parts of the city there were clashes between Koreans and soldiers.

Consul At Kobe Sends Plea For Doctors, Nurses

Mr. J. P. Davis, American Consul here has received the following cable from American Consul Dickover of Kobe:

"Help is needed in caring for foreign refugees, of who many are injured. Also pressing meed in Yokohama for medical aid. Send any available physicians and nurses."

The message, we understand, has been transmitted to Mr. Harold Dollar of the American Chamber of Commerce, Dr. W. T. Findley, of the American Association of China and Maj. Arthur Bassett of the American Red Cross.

Peking, Sept. 3.—Mr. Kao Ling-wei, Minister of the Interior in an interview today with a representative of the Eastern News Agency, stated:

Upon receipt of the heartrending news that Tokio, Yokohama and other cities and towns in the District of Kwanto have been demolished by the earthquake and conflagration and tens of thousands of human beings have lost their lives, the Chinese Government despatched a telegram to the Japanese Government, expressing China's heartfelt sympathy.

The Chinese Government have decided to hold an extraordinary meeting at 4:30 p.m. today when measures of displaying the sincere sympathy of China towards Japan are to be deliberated upon. In my opinion, the Chinese Government will without doubt send foodstuffs and other necessary things by a merchant-ship with several members of the Red Cross Society aboard. In view of the fact that there are not a few Chinese people residing in Tokio and Yokohama, I am as well very anxious about the lives and properties of these Chinese residents.

A telegram has been received saying that Mrs. H. E. Reynell and family are safe and staying now at the Oriental Hotel, Kobe. They were at the Fujima Hotel at Miyanoshita, which was destroyed.

Mrs. C. A. Momber and child are reported safe. Mr. Momber left on the British light cruiser Dispatch to look after them.

Among others who departed on the s.s. Despatch for Japan was Mr. J. H. Gallop of Macy's, (New York) whose wife and three sons were at Miyanoshita, where the principal hotel, the Fujiya, and other buildings, are reported to have collapsed.

The Misses Doreen and Alene Parkhill, daughters of Mr. A. W. Parkhill, of the Canadian Pacific offices, and residing at 81 Avenue Dubail, are in Yokohama and their parents have received no word of them.

No word has been received of Mr. and Mrs. John Prentice.

Mr. E. S. Wilkinson cabled yesterday that he was safe at Kobe but that he had no word of Mrs. Wilkinson who was stopping at Miyanoshita.

The American Express Company yesterday received a wireless from a member of their staff to the effect that Mr. I. M. MacAllister, the Yokohama manager, a Mr. Young, Mr. M. E. Merriman and Miss J. Heller were safe. Their offices at 73 Yamashita-cho were destroyed.

Shanghailanders who were registered at Yokohama and Tokio hotels, according to newspaper lists of the day before the catastrophe, included the following:

Miss A. S. Drau, Tokio Station Hotel; Mrs. H. Danforth, Grand Hotel; Mr. and Mrs. E. Plattner Oriental Palace; Mrs. H. Christie, Oriental Palace.

All the hotels were destroyed.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sokolsky were also in Yokohama at the time of the earthquake.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Georg Komor and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Goldman and family, all of Yokohama, who are well known in Shanghai are anxiously awaiting word as to their safety.

On the same day Mr. C. Rohsle of Shanghai was registered at the Tor Hotel, Kobe; Mr. and Mrs. E. Busch of Shanghai were also at the Tor.

Among the passengers who arrived in Yokohama two days before the catastrophe were Mr. G. S. Mundle of the United States Steel Products Company Tokio office, who had been in the United States six months; Mrs. E. M. Firth of Shanghai, and her daughter, Miss Margaret, and the Rev. E. H. Hamilton of Richmond, Va. Mrs. Firth was met at Yokohama by her husband, Mr. B. Firth, and it is thought they left Yokohama before the chaos. Rev. Hamilton was met by his fiancee, Miss Estelle McAlpine of Susaki. They were immediately married at the American Consulate-General and were sending their honeymoon at Karuizawa. They expected to come to China for missionary work after their honeymoon.

Mr. F. C. Noble of the American Trading Company was on the Empress of Australia as were Major G. C. Corvell of Tientsin; Mrs. E. Poskitt and two daughters;

Mr. A. David, Shanghai broker en route to Yokohama for a holiday.

Prof. Henry Fairchild Osborne, head of the American Museum of Natural History of New York arrived in Yokohama on the President Madison on the day preceding the earthquake, according to copies of the Japan Advertiser of August 31—the last newspaper published—which arrived on the President liner yesterday.

Prof. Osborne stopped over in Japan en route to Peking and Mongolia to join the Roy Chapman Andrews expedition for a short time. He was accompanied by Mrs. Osborne.

Mr. Ellwood G. Babbitt, the newly appointed Assistant Commercial Attache to the American Embassy in Tokio also arrived in Yokohama on the President Lincoln, which reached Shanghai yesterday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Babbitt and his two daughters, Misses Jocelyn and Doris.

Mrs. H. E. Root of Yokohama and her son, Merritt, who has been in school in the United States, and Mrs. Evelyn Mantell of San Francisco, a friend, also arrived in Yokohama on the same vessel, as did Mrs. F. D. Fagan and two daughters, who came to join Mr. Fagan, representative of the International General Electric Company in Yokohama; Miss Helen K. Smith of Los Angeles, who left the ship at Yokohama en route to Tientsin where she was to have become a teacher in the American School. Miss Smith was met in Yokohama by her sister, a teacher in the Tientsin school. Mr. Oscar H. Fairchild, representative of the Universal Oil Products Company of Chicago and Mrs. Fairchild, also arrived on the same steamer just before the catastrophe. Mr. John S. Winch, accountant for the Standard Oil Company also left the ship at Yokohama.

Mr. Roy K. Elliott of the General Electric Company of America, arrived in Yokohama on the President Lincoln just before the disaster.

Mr. Roger Etiles of Sale and Frazar, who had been in Seoul, Korea, returned to Tokio just before the earthquake.

Mr. K. P. Conflict, vice-president of the International Western Electric Company, who has been visiting in China, was due in Yokohama from Kobe the day before the catastrophe. No word has been received of him.

The Japan Advertiser of August 31, the day before the shock, gives the following hotel lists:

The local office of the Singer Sewing Machine Co. has had no word as to the fate met by the representatives of the company in Yokohama. An inquiry was sent by cable this morning but as yet no reply has been received. The company maintains a staff of three foreigners at Yokohama but has no office in Tokio.

The Shanghai office of the Standard Oil Co., is still without word from its offices in Yokohama and Tokio. Inquiries have been addressed to the Japan offices of the firm but have brought no response yet.

The Yokohama Specie Bank here has had no advices from its head offices and it is not known just how severely the bank suffered.

The Yangtsze Insurance Association, Ltd., which maintains an office in Yokohama, has no information regarding its staff there. Inquiries have been addressed to Yokohama but have resulted in no definite information as yet.

No word has been received of Judge Charles Sumner Lobingier and Mrs. Lobingier and some little apprehension is felt of their safety. Judge Lobingier was due to have been in Kobe last Saturday—the day of the catastrophe—for the wedding of United States Marshal Thurston R. Porter and Miss Louise McCoubrey, but no information as to whether he arrived from Yokohama in time has been received. It is thought possible that he may not have been able to have gotten away from Harbin in time to get to the wedding and was either in Korea—or possibly Yokohama or Tokio at the time of the holocaust.

Mr. Uyemura, clerk at the Astor House, has received no word of his family, all of whom were visiting in Tokio at the time. His son arrived just a day or two before the quake.

The N. Y. K. received a message yesterday that Mr. Y. Ito, the president of the line, was safe near Miyanoshita.

Hundreds of Japanese residents of Shanghai are without word of any kind concerning their relatives.

Jefferson Sends Direct Word Of Great Disaster

yesterday morning for Kobe with 350 refugees on board. The Captain has promised Mr. Earl Townsend, the local agent, to wireless a full list of survivors on board the vessel as soon as possible.

CONGRESSMAN MISSING

"Ackerman," mentioned in the wireless, is Congressman Ernest R. Ackerman of New Jersey, who with Mrs. Ackerman was visiting in Tokio after a tour of the Orient. While in Shanghai they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Harold Dollar.

The Empress of Australia, according to information received by the local offices of the Canadian Pacific, fouled her propellors during the earthquake. No one was injured and small damage resulted. Passengers from the Empress landed at Yokohama just before the catastrophe. The vessel was due to leave at noon, when the first shock occured, and it is thought that all passengers who intended leaving Yokohama by the Empress were aboard and are safe.

BLUFF DESTROYED

The Bluff is the principal foreign residence section of Yokohama and as the Jefferson reports that all houses have been destroyed grave fears are felt for scores of foreign residences.

The Grand and Oriental Palace Hotels which were destroyed had a large number of foreign guests. No definite information of the guests has been received. Mr. A. K. Bennett, well known in Shanghai, is manager of the Grand Hotel, and Mr. Roger L. Moore, formerly manager of the Astor House Hotel here, is assistant manager of the Grand. No word of him has been received.

The news that the bottom of the harbor has raised indicates that the earthquake has completely changed the harbor and that navigation will be dangerous until the harbor has been completely redredged.

The United States Steel Corporation offices here have received word that their offices have been destroyed. They have no news of their staff. The s.s. Steel Navigator, which was in the harbor, is safe, but Captain Simpson was lost. The s.s. Selma City was badly damaged by the earthquake and beached at Homoku, near Yokohama, with 20 feet of water in the hold. The Japanese passengers, numbering between 180 and 200, and the crew are reported safe.

The Canadian Pacific received a cable from their General Manager at Yokohama yesterday that he was safe, but that he had no news of other members of the staff. The C. P. offices were destroyed.

The announcement that Mr. J. H. Taggart, Managing Director of the Hongkong and Shanghai Hotels, had left Hongkong for Japan, turns out to be incorrect. Mrs. Taggart is on the s.s. Empress of Canada, which is reported safe, and Mr Taggart is remaining at Hongkong.

A number of Shanghai people sailed yesterday on the President Pierce and Shanghai Maru to search for relatives and friends. Among those sailing were Mr. V. G. Lyman of the Standard Oil Company, Mr. T. D. Bannister, Mr. George Bronson Rea and Mr. Verne Clare.

Mr. C. J. Laval, Shanghai correspondent for the Associated Press, and Edna Lee Booker, Shanghai correspondent for the International News Service, also sailed to 'cover' the story. No news has been received of the Associated Press and International correspondents. Mr. Duke Perry, correspondent in Tokio for the Hearst services, is well known in Shanghai and Peking.

No word had been received late last night of Mrs. William McBain, her little niece, Jean Curry, the year-old baby of Mr. R. A. Curry, and Miss Billie Scott who have been at Dzushi, between Kamakura and Yokusha.

Mr. James Ambrose of Probst, Hanbury is safe at Mianoshita according to a message received last night.

Word was received here late yesterday that the French Mail liner Andre Lebon has left Yokohama for Kobe with 500 refugees aboard.

It was also reported that the French Mail offices have been destroyed and that nothing was known of the fate of the staff.

Arcola sends the heat through the whole house instead of up the chimney. Where three tons of fuel were required with the old heating system, Arcola burns but two.
This advantage alone is sufficient to put Arcola in front of others, but in addition Arcola runs without attention; gives healthful and uniform warmth; is very decorative and easily installed.

LEAGUE MOVES TOWARD GOAL, ASSERTS ISHII

Work Is Hampered Howevei By Reparations Dispute, He Tells Assembly

(Reuter's Service)

Geneva, Sept. 3.—Viscount Ishii in his opening speech at the Assembly of the League of Nations declared that, so long as the great reparations dispute embarrassed the relations of its constituent nations, the work of the League must necessarily be limited and enfeebled. He earnestly hoped the dispute would be removed before the next meeting of the Assembly.

Viscount Ishii pointed out that while the League had not yet become universal, it already covered three-fourths of the world's population. Finally, he declared that the League was gradually and surely progressing towards the goal its authors had conceived.

The Assembly elected Doctor De La Torriente, the Cuban delegate, as President of the session by 24 votes against 19 for M. Motta (Switzerland). It appears that the dominant factor was the feeling that Europeans should be eliminated in view of the present crisis.

700 DELEGATES AT OPENING OF UNION CONGRESS

British Labor Leader Flays Premier Mussolini As Mad Imperialist

(Reuter's Service)

London, Sept. 3.—The Trade Union Union Congress opened at Plymouth today. Seven hundred delegates were present, representing 4,369,000 members of affiliated unions, a decline of over half a million as compared with last year.

Mr. J. R. Williams, presiding, denounced Italy's action and asked: Did they intend to stand idly by and see the world's peace imperilled because the mad lust of Imperialism had been transferred from Hohenzollern to Mussolini?

As a token of sympathy with the victims of the earthquake in Japan the delegates rose and stood silent for a few moments.

Mutinous Troops Move On Wuchang

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Hankow, Sept. 3.—The troops who mutinied against General Chao Heng-ti at Changsha and joined General Tan Yen-kai's cause are reported to have advanced 100 li on Wuchang and to have arrived at Milo, where they are faced by Northern forces.

General Tan is expected at Changsha very soon.

Northern reinforcements are on the way.

Later.—General Tan's forces have arrived at Yochow. It is understood that the Northern troops there have gone over to his side.

Ruhr Resistance Grows Less, Claim

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Sept. 3.—French official reports represent resistance in the Ruhr as rapidly decreasing. The French are of opinion that Dr. Stresemann is preparing the way to a spontaneous cessation of resistance as a preliminary to formal conversations with Paris and Brussels.

better inquiry from Continental consumers and also by strengthening advices from abroad. No business has resulted in spite of all the inquiries received owing to the fact that a divergency still exists between buyer's and seller's ideas. Although the European market has improved it has been absolutely impossible to put through any transaction. Chinese dealers are demanding Tls. 7 per picul, which at yesterday's exchange works out at £22.10 per ton c.i.f. Europe. The Continental buyers are offering only £21 per ton, a difference of £1.10 per ton—really an impossible situation. Exporters are hoping that exchange will improve sufficiently to enable this difference to be bridged. The new crop is expected to come on the market at the beginning of next month, and in the course of the next few days more reliable information should be had from the producing centers as regards the state of the crop in general.

Rapeseeds is firmer with a rather better demand from Japan. The entry of Japan in the local market once more for the supply of this product has served to brace it up. A good business has been put through at Tls. 5.60 per picul, an improvement of one mace per picul over the previous week. Some 30,000 to 40,000 bags were transacted. The stocks of rapeseeds in Shanghai are estimated at about 10,000 bags. The stocks are expected to increase shortly although at present arrivals are small from the interior.

The belief is entertained that the demand from Japan will continue to expand for some time as supplies of this commodity are reported to be small there. The approach of the season for cakes will call for larger quantities of rapeseeds. The anti-Japanese agitation in China and the political squabbles among the militarists have caused a falling-off in the importation of oilseeds to Japan and furnished Japanese holders with an excellent pretext for holding on to their stocks or boosting the price. For sometime the prices of wood oil, repeseeds oil and perilla oil were on the upgrade.

Shipments of seeds from India to the United Kingdom and the Continent up till the end of July this year have exceeded the shipments in the same time last year by about 32,000 tons. Shipments of repeseeds from India to the United Kingdom and the Continent from January 1 to July 4 amounted to 194,225 tons against 168,250 tons in the same time last year.

Buyers are not very keen to buy soya beans. In Manchuria soya bean crops have been damaged by the recent rains and storms, and at Dairen bean cakes are heavy. In Tokio farmers are making new inquiries as they anticipate higher prices in the fall. Bean oil on the Shanghai market is quoted at about Tls. 11 per picul. Dairen prices are high for European buyers, but the price is keeping steady at ruling rate. The demand is poor at the moment. Stocks although small in Shanghai are for the present needs ample. There is a fair movement of soya bean oil in bulk to the United States. The value of soya bean oil shipments are about 80 percent of the total exports from Dairen to the United States. Of the 61 bean mills in the South Manchurian Railway district 43 have already shut down owing to the seasonal slack period now on and more are expected to close down. There is apparently no improvement of consequence in the demand from consumers of soya beans and soya bean oil.

A small business is reported in paraffin wax and white wax. Supplies of these are small, and arrivals show no signs of improving. Superior grade white wax is quoted at Tls. 155, a decline from previous quotations. Paraffin wax is round about Tls. 8.50. A revival of buying in this is expected shortly.

There is practically no interest shown in groundnuts, and quotations are nominal. Stocks are practically exhausted. Europe has been taking this commodity from India. The demand for groundnut oil is sluggish, the southern buyers operating to a small extent.

BARBERS AND CARPENTERS ARE BOTH SHAVERS

Last Baseball Game Of Season Today, Also For Scotty, Who Is Leaving

Contest With Millers Is To Be Exhibition, With Proceeds Going To Soldiers; Loving Cup To Be Presented To Scotty

By Westa

The final game of the Shanghai-Fort Mills baseball series will be played this afternoon, starting at 4:30 o'clock, and will be in the nature of an exhibition game for the Fort Mills boys. A charge of one dollar per person will be made, including the members of the baseball club, but not including the deadheads who inhabit the charity fringe. No way has as yet been figured out to separate that bunch of turtles from their kale seeds.

A dollar may sound like a lot of money, but when you hear what the dollar includes it will seem a ridiculously small sum. In the first place the dollar will give you the privilege of watching John Scott in action for the last time this year, Scotty being scheduled to sail for America on the fourteenth.

Secondly, a silver loving cup is to be presented to Scotty in recognition of his efforts, extending over a period of fifteen years, to entertain the baseball fans in this part of China.

When this loving cup is presented Scotty will remove his cap, thereby disclosing a dome of noble dimensions but with about as much hirsute adornment as is to be found on the pate of the wild and ferocious posnecki which roams the plains. That is, the plains of centerfield. The posnecki is a long sighted bird that sandpapered the fuzz from its roof when it learned that airplanes were to be the transportation medium of the future, figuring that when it became too old to cavort in centerfield it could make a good living by renting out its boat deck as a bill board.

Well, that's the sort of dome you will gaze upon when Scotty remove his cap to accept the loving cup—all for the insignificant sum of one dollar.

In addition Scotty may make a spooch. And what, it may well be asked, could be more alluring than the prospect of Scotty making a spooch? Then we would learn something that each and every one of us has long wanted to know, namely, what it is that Scotty thinks about when he stands out there and holds the ball, with darkness coming on, and holds and holds and holds.

Think of being let in on that secret for one small yang ti!

All the proceeds of this game will be turned over to the Fort Mills boys in appreciation of the fine baseball they have shown us while here. The Millers have given the best that was in them, which best has been quite good enough. They have shown us good ball and good sportsmanship, and we certainly owe it to them to turn out in force for this final game. Lieutenant Mumford will pitch.

It promises to be a great ball game. Scotty will try his durndest to make his last game a winner, and Herby Gallop will be out to egg him on. Dinny Doyle has promised to umpire bases and Walter Holliday will be on the coaching lines barking at Mumford about his balky delivery and in other ways trying to torment him into issuing walking papers for the Gallopers, paradoxical as that may seem.

Last but not least, it will be the final big game of the season. The Navy will not get here before the stands are down and the Japanese have quit playing, due to the calamity that has overtaken their country.

All for one iron man!

Football Ass'n Issues Report On Year's Work

(Concluded From Yesterday)

It appears to be an opinion widely held that the scope of this competition is too confined and that it should be expanded so as to admit any team that chooses to enter and is acceptable to the Association. At present, the rules as to players eligible are so worded as to exclude entries from such bodies as the Merchant Service Club (which unsuccessfully tried to enter a team last season); and as this definitely limits the number of Clubs allowed to enter teams, it appears to contravene one of the main objects with which the Association was formed, i.e., "to promote the game of Association Football in Shanghai in every way . . ." A very simple alteration of the existing rules would rectify this state of affairs.

ENGINEERS' CUP

The match for this cup, always between the Marine Engineers and the S.F.C., usually takes place at China New Year, but last season, owing to unavoidable circumstances, it had to be deferred till April 3. A ragged game resulted in their being no score at the end of ninety minutes play, but in the extra time the Engineers scored two goals, thus regaining possession of the trophy, which they had not won since 1909.

M. E. CHARITY CUP

In the annual match for this cup, the teams chosen to play were the Marine Engineers and the Shanghai Recreation Club. The match took place on the S.R.C. ground on December 26, before a large crowd, and after a hard-fought, clean game the Shanghai Recreation Club emerged victors by three goals to one.

From a financial viewpoint—and hence once of charity also—the match was an unqualified success. The necessary expenses were cut down to a minimum, and the sum of $2,100 was handed to the trustees of the Shantung Road Hospital. The major portion of the credit for this splendid outcome is due the Association's popular President, Mr. John Prentice, who, by his own efforts, was instrumental in raising more than $1,000. Mr. W. S. Campbell, and Mr. B. Anderton, of the Marine Engineers' Institute, also worked indefatigably, and were responsible, in no small measure, both for the financial outcome of the game and for the general arrangements.

It may be mentioned that since the inception of this annual charity match more than $13,000 has been raised for local charities, the institutions which benefit being, in turn, the Shantung Road Hospital, St. Luke's Hospital, The General Hospital and The Door of Hope.

REFEREES

The provision of an adequate number of efficient referees constitutes one of the most serious problems that the new Administration will have to face. The available supply of referees is not equal to the demand. While last season there was a progressive disposition on the part of both spectators and players to be critical of the referee's control of a game, there was a growing disinclination on the part of many referees to officiate at all. Some of the reasons for the coming season's probable shortage are, in my opinion, as follows:

(a) The number of reasonably competent referees in Shanghai is so limited that even under very favorable conditions it is difficult to provide referees for eight matches on any Saturday.

(b) Unlike most other places where Association football is played on an extensive scale, there is no referees' organisation in Shanghai that caters for instruction in control of the game and its fine points, and on the

Tilden and Johnston Victors In Concluding Singles Of Challenge Play

(Reuter's Service)

Forest Hills, Sept. 3.—In the two concluding singles in the challenge round of the Davis Cup competition Mr. Johnston (America) beat Mr. Hawkes (Australia) 6-0, 6-2, 6-1, and Mr. Tilden (America) beat Mr. Anderson (Australia) 6-2, 6-2, 1-6, 7-5. America thus retains the Davis Cup, scoring a decisive victory with 4 matches to 1.

Hawkes began wildly, but Johnston's smashing forehand drives forced him to the defensive. The Australian fought gamely making surprising recoveries, but was unable to equal the American's terrific speed.

Top row, left to right: The home of The Bank of Japan, in Tokio, which according to late messages, has gone up in flames; the Tokio Kaijo (Fire and Marine Insurance) building, the largest office structure in Japan, which has been destroyed; Benten-dori, Tokio's shopping street, now in ruins.

Two Killed; Four Injured in Armed Tient-in Robbery

A money exchange shopkeeper and a hawker were killed and four policemen wounded on last Saturday in Tientsin as a result of an armed robbery on the exchange shop. The robbers were cornered in an alley and when police were questioning the shopkeeper, who had already been wounded, one of the robbers, in the dark, opened fire, killing the two men and wounding the four policemen. One of the robbers was captured but the death-dealer in the dark has not been apprehended.

SEND CONDOLENCES

Messages of condolence were addressed to the Japanese Cabinet yesterday by the Parliamentarians in Shanghai, the Kuomingtang Party, the Kiangsu Educational Association and other local bodies.

News from the Japanese Consulate-General indicates that medical supplies and bandages are urgently needed to care for the injured.

Mr. Ling-kwei, a Japanese returned student, has been instructed by the Hsueh Yi-shah, an educational organisation, to investigate the conditions of the Chinese students in Japan and will sail on Friday.

Extra men were placed to work on the outgoing Japanese mail in the Chinese Post Office yesterday. Mails for Japan are expected to be usually heavy for some considerable time to come. A large number of Japanese residents left on the Shanghai Maru for Japan yesterday.

Kobe shipping companies are advising their local offices that on account of the urgent necessity of utilising all vessels on the Kobe-Shanghai run for relief work, no boat will be despatched to Shanghai for the present, and all schedules are abandoned.

AMERICANS GET CALL

The American Association of China started yesterday noon to raise subscriptions in response to an appeal received from the American Association of Kobe. The message was received by the local offices of the Columbia Pacific Shipping Company, reading as follows—"The American Association of Kobe appeals to the Americans in China to raise funds for the thousands of distressed in Japan."

The message was signed by Mr. J. F. Buckley, vice-president of the American Association of Kobe.

Collections made as a result of this plea will be handled and administered through the American Red Cross.

PORTUGUESE SEND FOOD

The local Portuguese community also issued a call yesterday to its members for the contribution of money to aid in the relief of their nationals in the affected territory and in aid of the suffering Japanese. Subscriptions, it was announced, would be handled by Messrs. Botelho Brothers, who will also take care of the shipping of goods.

As a result of the early action taken by the Portuguese workers, a large shipment of biscuits and canned goods will be dispatched today to the Portuguese Consul at Kobe, for forwarding to the area of need. Mr. J. H. Botelho, Portuguese Vice-Consul arranged for the early shipment of the supplies. He has also wired to a brother in Hongkong to arrange for shipments of rice to supplement the aid from here.

SHIPS ARE DIVERTED

Many of the available ships of the various Japanese lines are being diverted from their regular schedules to assist in transporting supplies to the scene of the calamity.

The Siberia Maru, of the T. K. K., which arrived from San Francisco and Japan ports on Monday and was to have left the same evening for Hongkong, sailed for Kobe direct yesterday. It is expected that the liner will be put immediately on relief work. Passengers for southern ports were transferred here to the President Lincoln.

Word has been received by the local offices of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha of the diversion of a number of their ships for the carrying of food and other supplies from Osaka and Kobe to Yokohama and Tokio.

MANY N. Y. K. BOATS

The Yamashira Maru, of the Kobe-Shanghai line, sailed from Kobe for Yokohama with supplies on Monday. The Bingo Maru, a large vessel of the Kobe-Kirin line, left Kobe for Yokohama on Monday, while the Hakozaki Maru, of the company's European service was to put out from Kobe for the scene of the disaster yesterday and the Kumano Maru, of the Kobe-Shanghai line, will sail from the former port for Yokohama today.

All of these ships are carrying foodstuffs for the sufferers and advices received from the Kobe manager of the N.Y.K. were to the effect that within the next few days the company will be called upon to furnish transport for huge quantities of supplies, including 100,000 tons of rice which the government has ordered assembled for shipment at Osaka and Kobe.

In consequence the local service of the N.Y.K., as well as other Japanese lines, will probably be somewhat disturbed for a time.

CHECK FOR TLS. 1,000

Among the contributions reported yesterday was one for Tls. 1,000 sent by Mr. A. Brooke-Smith, of Messrs. Jardine, Matheson, and Co., to Mr. Sakuragi, counsellor, who was asked to hand it over to the Japanese Relief Committee.

A Mr. Morita, prominent Japanese businessman of Antunghsien at present in Shanghai, is said to have begun the buying of 1,000 tons of rice in this country for shipment to Japan. It was stated that he left for Nagasaki yesterday by the Shanghai Maru of the N.Y.K. line to make further arrangements for the transporting of the cereal.

The Shanghai Maru when it sailed yesterday carried nearly 450 passengers, the majority of whom were making the trip on account of the great disaster. Many were relatives of people known to have been in the devastated districts, while others were businessmen whose Tokio and Yokohama offices are believed to have been destroyed, with loss of life to the staffs. A number of newspaper men also sailed by this ship, including Mr. C. J. Laval, representing the Associated Press of America, Mr. Hata, of the Eastern News Agency, and others.

CABINET VOTES $200,000

The Chinese Cabinet at a special meeting on Monday decided to remit the sum of $200,000 for the relief of the Japanese earthquake victims. A request will be made by the Cabinet to the Chinese Chambers of Commerce at Shanghai, Hankow, Tientsin and Peking to raise more funds.

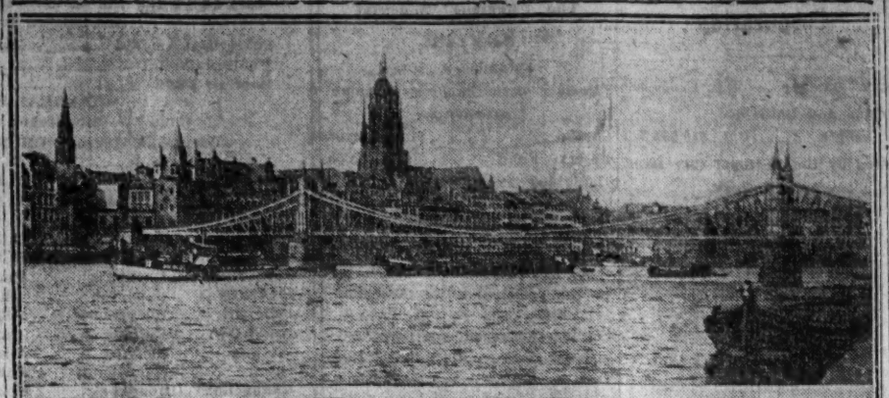
Wave Of Communism Sweeping Germany



A wave of Communism is sweeping Germany, increasing with each widespread depreciation of the value of the mark. Frankfort on the Main, one of Germany's largest industrial cities, just outside the French zone of occupation in the Ruhr, has been the scene of the greatest outbreaks, many being killed and wounded there, and far graver trouble is anticipated, now that the Government has forbidden further meetings there of the radical elements.

Description Of Tokio

Tokio, the capital of Japan, was called Yedo formerly. It is situated at the north end of the Bay of Yedo, has a circumference of 27 miles, and covers a surface of 40 square miles. The river Sumida runs through the city, the larger part lying to the west of the river. The two wards known as Sondo and Sukagawa are on the east.

The city is divided into 15 ward divisions and its suburbs into six divisions. The Castle of Tokio is on a commanding position on a hill west of the city. A new palace has been constructed on the old site and it is reported to be saved. Between the castle and the outer walls is a large area formerly occupied by the palaces of the Daimios, but nearly all have now given away to brick or stone buildings used as public offices, barracks, and government schools.

Several portions outside the walls are very densely inhabited and comprise the industrial and industrial 'slum' and the more pretentious residential districts. The most important part of the business quarter is on the east of the castle, and is traversed by a main street running from the north to the southwest under several names. A considerable portion of the street, a part of which is called Ginza, is lined with brick buildings in the European style.

The districts of Honjo and Fukagawa form a distinct industrial portion of the capital. Here is the center of the lumber and other trades. This quarter is connected with the rest of the city by six great bridges, some of which are constructed of iron and some of wood. They are called, commencing to the north, Adsuma-Bashi, Umaya-Bashi, Ryogoku-Bashi, O-Hashi, Shin-O-Hashi and Eitai-Bashi, respectively. From these the traveller may obtain a fine view of the animated river-life of the Sumida, whose waters are always covered with junks and boats of all descriptions. The bridges are destroyed.

A great part of the remaining area forming the district north of the castle, a few years ago covered by paddy fields, is covered by "suburbs" of great extent. There are also extensive pleasure gardens, such as Asuka-yama, and many little villages. The part west of the castle contains 30 temples, and a number of nobles' palaces. The district of the south of the castle, with an area of about 17½ square miles, contains about 60 temples. The most remarkable among them is Fudo-sama in Meguro.

Several great fires have during the last two decades swept Tokio, and these have led to great improvements and widening of the streets. Rows of good houses in brick and stone, and new bridges, in many cases of iron or stone, have been built, and the city has in many portions been thoroughly modernised. There were some very large and handsome official and mercantile buildings.

The finest scenery is at the northern and western sides of city, where the country is surrounded by beautiful hills, from which there is a distant view of the noble mountains of Hakone, while beyond rises in solitary grandeur the towering peak of Fuji-san covered with snow the greater part of the year. The population of Tokio as disclosed by the Census of 1920 is 2,173,162.

The native press is represented by some 20 daily papers, and many monthly and fortnightly publications. There is a daily paper run by Japanese in the English language called the Japan Times and Mail which is representative of Japanese interests, and the Japan Advertiser, which was published for many years in Yokohama, is now published in the capital. All the newspaper offices are in ruins. The Far East, a weekly illustrated newspaper, British owned, is also published in Tokio. There are 1,221 schools of different classes, including several universities, as distinct from the Imperial or official. There were three large and handsome hotels designed for foreigners, the Tokio Station Hotel, Imperial Hotel and Seiyokem. All are in ruins.

Spot and forward bar silver were unchanged in London yesterday. As there was a holiday in New York no advices have been received from there but the London-New York cross rate as cabled from London is 453½.

Our market here today was firm but erratic with sharp variations in the rates at which business was done at different times.

The lowest rates at which business was done in Sterling were 3s. 1⅛d. September, 3s. 1⅛d. October and 3s. 1d. November-December. The Lowest rates for Gold Dollars were 70¼ for near delivery and 70 for forward.

However at the close the market was strong, there being sellers of Sterling at 3s. 1⅝d. September, 3s. 1¼d. October and 3s. 1⅛d. November-December.

There were sellers of Gold Dollars at 70⅝ for near delivery and 70½ for forward and sellers of Yen at 69 for near and forward deliveries.

Banks were quoting 3s. 1⅞d., 72½ and 1290 for Sterling, Gold Dollar and Franc bills respectively.

China bought silver in London yesterday and India sold, the market closing steady.

Every Morning at Breakfast take a draught of SANATOGEN
This will give you that extra nerve-energy which makes you feel "fit" and fresh all day and it will save you from Heat prostration

SANATOGEN in the morning means a better day's work—means that you feel brighter, fresher, and keener all day, in spite of the exhausting heat, while your powers of resistance to typhoid, cholera, dysentery and nervous disorders will be enormously increased.

TRY IT!

SANATOGEN'S power to increase nerve-energy has been definitely proved, in the words of Sir Charles A. Cameron. C.B., M.D., etc. President of the Royal Institute of Public Health:—

Sanatogen is an excellent nerve-food of the highest nutritive value, easily and completely digested.

GET A BOTTLE TO-DAY

Never forget that Sanatogen is a food, not a medicine or a "secret remedy." It increases nerve-energy by feeding the nerves—not by goading them with drugs or stimulants. Its action is as natural as that of any ordinary food: it must do good, and it cannot do harm. That is why doctors give it even to babies. And that is why so many Europeans in the East take Sanatogen regularly, all the year round—not as an occasional "tonic," but as a part of their daily diet. You should do likewise, if you want to keep your nerve-energy at the highest pitch, and to avoid the debilitating effects of the great heat latest amendments to the Referees' Chart.

(c) Three of last season's regular referees have left the port and the services of at least three others in the coming season are extremely doubtful. (Special mention must be made of the services of Messrs. J. F. Gabbutt and H. F. Landers who, for many years, have been among Shanghai's most regular and efficient referees. Their departure from Shanghai is a distinct loss to local soccer).

(d) In the case of some matches which, last season, were called off or postponed on the Saturday morning, the Clubs concerned, while notifying the players to that effect, seldom took the trouble to inform the referee or the Hon. Secretary of the Association, with the result that on a number of occasions the referee changed at home and arrived on the ground only to discover that there was no match. Such incidents do not provide an incentive to refereeing.

(e) Referees do not always receive fair treatment at the hands of the press. In one journal particularly has a writer been prone to enlarge on any mistake or supposed mistake made by a referee, but apparently disinclined to make mention of those few occasions when referees have (presumably) officiated to the satisfaction of a majority. It is doubtful if any referee ever pleases everybody.

It is an anomaly, not confined to Shanghai, that while a player is quickly forgiven for making the most glaring or disastrous (to his side) errors, and even for serious contraventions of the Laws of the Game, no mistake on the part of a referee is easily forgotten or readily forgiven, and invariably, any lapse of alertness, however small, on the part of a referee, calls forth the censure of a large section of the spectators and no small proportion of the players. It is worthy of mention that on numerous occasions last season local referees officiated at great personal inconvenience, and many times, at short notice, cancelled golf, racing and business arrangements, in order to help us out.

A careful consideration of the whole question leads me to the following suggestions:

(a) That the old Referees' Association be revived.

(b) That while being subsidiary to the Association, it be a self-governing body so far as its own members are concerned.

(c) That its membership consist of approved referees and those desirous of becoming referees.

(d) That referees for all games be appointed by the Referees' Association.

(e) That, under the aegis of the Referees' Association, periodical classes be held, for mutual information and instruction and for the benefit of those desirous of taking charge of games. (In this respect, there should be no dearth of candidates, as the extensive knowledge of the laws and fine points of the game audibly displayed by at least a dozen followers of local football would indicate that these gentlemen have in them the makings of the perfect referee).

(f) A better knowledge of the rules of football by (i) players and (ii) spectators. In this connection, the F. A. Referees' Chart, issued last season by the Association (price 40c. net) and which contains the full regulations, together with many diagrams illustrating the off-side rule, would appear to meet all reasonable requirements. It is probable that a reprint of this Chart, with the latest amendments of the Football Association, Limited, will be issued at an early date.

(g) A wider appreciation of the difficulties of our amateur referees, and a realisation of the fact that the impeccable football referee is, like the faultless football player, one of the greatest rarities in the whole realm of sport.

THE S. V. C.

At the last provisional Committee Meeting of the season it was pointed out that there had been a certain amount of clashing, and at times inconvenience, in regard to fixtures arranged in the Fraser Shield Competition (S. V. C.) and those arranged by the Association. It was stated that the great majority of players that took part in the Fraser Shield Competition were members of Clubs belonging to the Association, and that the Association's referees had officiated at all of the Fraser Shield games during the season.

It was also mentioned that in the event of the regulations governing the Skottowe Cup Competition being amended so as to admit more competitors, it was probable that there would be entries from units of the S. V. C., and that everything indicated the advisability of those S. V. C. companies that maintained soccer teams becoming members of the Association. It was further considered that in a Settlement such as this, where football teams are maintained only by the foreign community, the whole of those teams should be members of one main organisation. After a lengthy discussion, the conclusion was arrived at that while, under present circumstances, the Association could not arrogate to itself the slightest authority over an independent organisation such as the Fraser Shield Competition, it certainly would appear advisable that the companies of the S. V. C. concerned be written to, pointing out the mutual advantage that probably would accrue from matches in the Fraser Shield competition being incorporated in the Association's fixture list, and inviting the football teams of the S. V. C. to consider whether they would care to consider becoming members of the Association. During the close season, the companies concerned have been communicated with to this effect, together with an invitation that each company send two representatives to the Annual General Meeting to place their own views before the Association and to discuss at the Meeting the question of affiliation.

LATE STARTS

At the commencement of last season there was a marked tendency for players to arrive many minutes late on the field of play, and in the First League this often meant that hundreds of spectators were kept waiting unnecessarily for lengthy periods. As a result of complaints received, the matter was placed before the Provisional Committee, and a public notice was issued in which it was stated that players were expected to be on the field of play five minutes before the advertised time of commencement, and that referees were not authorised to delay the start of any game, irrespective of how few players were present. This had the desired effect for a considerable time, but towards the end of the season there was again a noticeable unpunctuality on the part of players, and, in a lesser degree, referees also.

PLAYING SEASON

It has been represented to the Recreation Ground Committee that, in order to avoid misunderstandings and to ensure that in future there is no avoidable overlapping a definite line be drawn between the football season and the season for playing summer games. It is connection, it has been requested that so far as the Recreation Ground is concerned, the football season commence on October 15 and terminate on March 31, with the first week in April as an additional "period of grace" in case of necessity. With League football commencing before the end of October and given a reasonable amount of good weather, the need for this period of grace should seldom arise.

Similarly, a request has been forwarded to the Secretary of the Municipal Council, asking that a like system be made applicable to Hongkew Park.

B. P. BOY SCOUTS

Very hearty thanks are due the Shanghai Boy Scouts for the able and unselfish manner in which their services were placed at the disposal of the Association during the season. At charity matches and at Interport trial matches they carried out all of the work connected with the collection of entrance fees, etc. in a splendid manner, and it speaks volumes for their morale that during some of the coldest days of the winter, when many of them were "on duty" on behalf of the Association, often for hours at a stretch, they did all they undertook to do without a word of complaint, and to the complete satisfaction of the Association.

PLAYING GROUNDS

At the end of last season the Provisional Committee had under brief consideration the adequacy of the playing grounds now available to clubs belonging to the Association. The conclusion arrived at was that while the grounds at present available for and suitable to soccer (eight in all—five on the Recreation Ground and three at Hongkew Park) were just sufficient for the present and probably the immediate future, some steps should be taken in regard to the provision of additional grounds. The opinion was expressed that both on the Recreation Ground and at Hongkew Park it would be possible to provide at least one additional playing pitch without encroaching on the facilities for other winter sports, and without undue expense or extensive alterations. The question was left in the hands of the writer, who has since done nothing in the matter.

It would appear advisable that in order to provide for the steady growth of Association football in Shanghai, with a correlative increase in the number of clubs and a necessity of more grounds within the next year or two, the whole question should be accorded very careful investigation and consideration. Soccer undoubtedly being the chief winter sport in Shanghai, it is a natural assumption that any reasonable scheme for increasing the facilities for playing would receive the sympathetic consideration of the authorities concerned.

THE GROUND COMMITTEE

Thanks are due the members of the Recreation Ground Committee who, through the medium of their Honorary Secretary, Mr. E. Brook, have invariably been ready and wling to make every reasonable concession in regard to the playing of matches, and without whose sympathetic co-operation the season now passed would not have been as successful as it was.

PRIVATE GROUND

During last season there was a certain amount of informal discussion among members of the Provisional Committee as to the advisability of the Association obtaining a private enclosed ground of its own. The pros and cons of the matter were gone into and it was the opinion that possession of such a ground would entail many advantages and was eminently to be desired. While nothing was definitely decided on or recommended, I was asked to make inquiries during the close season. The result of those inquiries is that I am able to state that if the Association decides it really requires such a ground, one will probably be available in the not distant future, on terms which, I believe, would entail no capital outlay and practically no risk by the Association. At the time of writing, the whole question, in which others are interested equally with the Association, is in the embryo stage, and I am not able to give any details, beyond saying that the ground would be easy of access, both by tramcar and by ricsha, and that there would be no restrictions as to the use of the ground. I hope to be able to place full particulars before the Annual General Meeting, when it can be decided, whether the question shall seriously be taken up. I would emphasise that I have taken no action in the matter, have made no arrangements, either concrete or tentative, and that my activities have been solely confined to inquiries.

A TRIBUTE

Before concluding, I should like to pay tribute—in which I feel sure all lovers of football will join—to the splendid efforts on behalf of local football so consistently rendered by Mr. W. S. Campbell, Vice-President of the Association. Mr. Campbell's efforts have been well-known for many years, but during the season under review he surpassed himself. He was a regular attendant at the important matches and missed very few meetings of the Provisional Committe, where his extensive practical experience of soccer and his mature, sound judgment and advice on all matters that came up for discussion and decision were invaluable. It is to be hoped that he will be prevailed upon to reconsider his avowed decision to abstain from further active participation in the affairs of the Association; for he is one of the chief bulwarks of local football, second only to our esteemed President, Mr. John Prentice.

Finally, I should like to place on record the manner in which I have been supported in my duties as Honorary Secretary by all concerned with the administration of the affairs of the Association, and especially by the members of the Provisional Committee. In a large organisation such as the Shanghai Football Association, catering to the exercise and entertainment of many hundreds of players and spectators, the Secretary has at times to take important decisions and action largely on his own initiative and responsibility, and it follows that in such cases he would be in a position both anomalous and invidious if his Committee failed to support him and to uphold his actions.

Such support has never been denied me.

C. W. Hampson,
Honorary Secretary,
Shanghai Football Association.

WEATHER

Fine and cool weather. N-ly breezes over our coasts. Low area probably over the Pacific ocean to the SE of the Loochoos. The direction of the typhoon to the west of them is uncertain because of the lack of telegram from the Loochoos.

The Zi-ka-wei observatory feels it its duty to protest against some wild rumors, according to which some violent shocks of earthquake were registered by seismograph yesterday 3rd, and today 4th. We sympathize too much with the feelings of the residents in such a disaster to let such false news pass without protest.

The Horror Grows

EVERY telegram from Japan yesterday and last night multiplied the horrors of what is now known to have been the greatest calamity that ever visited the Island Empire. Great cities destroyed; lives snuffed out by the tens and hundreds of thousands; the work of a generation upon regeneration of human hands and brains swept away on a scale never before recorded in the whole history of human progress—a picture of terror and destruction that stupefies the imagination.

The shock contained in the news of this greatest of natural cataclysms stirs emotions akin to those that filled every heart nine years ago last month, when the terrible news was flashed around the world that the dreadful sequel to the crack of a lunatic's pistol at Sarajevo had materialised, and that all Europe stood on the verge of a conflagration. The same emotions, except that in this instance there is no softening of the horror with the compensating thought that after the havoc would come retribution, or that the rivers of blood that must inevitably flow would at least be cleansing.

The cause that led to that disaster was human in origin, which fact, if it did not mitigate the poignancy of the catastrophe at least was a reminder that with a proper application of that intelligence with which humankind was endowed by the Creator it might have been avoided.

There are no such compensations as these in the calamity that has befallen Japan. That calamity was due to no man's negligence nor to any man's ambition. It could not be foreseen or guarded against. Entirely dissociated from human causes it swept down upon an unprepared and defenseless people with a fury greater than the fury of war, as merciless as it was inexplicable.

There was hope after the first terrible messages were received that early reports would be found to have been exaggerated, as they usually are when the minds of those at the scene are overwhelmed by immediate terrors as to be incapable of rational conclusions or estimates. In this instance, however, the error seems to have been on the side of conservation, for with the reopening of communications and the arrival of refugees and eye witnesses the terrible narrative enlarged almost beyond the bonds of belief or the limits of fortitude to endure.

Fortunately for Japan, and by the same token, the world, the quality of endurance is one of the distinguishing characteristics of the Japanese people, and despite the fact that their present affliction is grievious there are no doubts in the minds of those who know the Japanese that they will shoulder the terrible new burden that has been placed upon them with that spirit of courage with which they are so richly endowed, and of which they have given proof time and again.

The world will not forsake Japan in this her hour of need. Indeed, as this is written offers of sympathy and assistance are being telegraphed from each and every one of the great sisterhood of nations. Britain and America have ordered warships stationed in Eastern waters to hasten to Japanese ports and to give all possible aid in the work of rescue and relief. The whole world's hand will be extended helpfully to stricken Japan.

But in a larger sense the great hope and the great guarantee of Japan's recovery from this terrible blow rests with the Japanese themselves. The help that will be given or that can be given will be but a tithe of the tremendous effort necessary to insure recovery from so terrible a blow. That the Japanese will supply that effort no man doubts, and just as the world now sympathizes with the Japanese in their trouble, so will the world applaud them with renewed admiration after their inevitable victory over this the greatest tribulation in their national history.

Whirlwind Wives

BY A PSYCHOLOGIST

There are tendencies in men and women which remain obscure even to men of science whose work is the exploration of that jungle which we call human nature.

Sometimes we think we have run a habit to its lair, when something shows us that we are not even on the right track. This is especially true of the psychology of women. Cleverer than men at concealing the motives which have led them to a course of action even when they are aware of them, women are often as often as not unconscious of the root impulses which inspire their behaviour.

Take, for example, the wife who positively revels in a row even with a husband to whom she is devotedly attached. In the case of men (and of elephants, too, be it said) one would put down the explosion to the tendency both manifest to "run amok" after periods of strenuous exertion. To some extent this is true of the whirlwind wife. But these sudden scenes are more often due to a dramatic instinct morbidly anxious to take the stage, and to surround itself immediately with the concentrated attention of the audience.

Occasionally these little panics can be traced to the worries of every-day life acting on a temperament either over-sensitive or nervously exhausted. Some women, moreover, seem unable to distinguish between a love of peace and indifference. Separated from her husband during the day by his profession, she claims his exclusive company in the evenings. Let him show a desire for an hour of quiet reading and she takes it as a sign that he no longer loves her. Here are all the elements of a first-class whirlwind.

Then, when the moment of reconciliation comes—if it does come—the wife whose married life is dull if not enlivened by scenes, suddenly blossoms into smiles. In an instant the bitter recriminations are forgotten. Of course she didn't mean a word of the horrid things she said, but she can't bear the idea that no longer cares as he used to care. If only he protests that he still adores her, her happiness will be complete, at least for that evening. The storm she provoked will have achieved its purpose.

Among the unconscious motives which inspire the conduct of the whirlwind wife, the psychoanalyst often comes upon against that uneasy vanity which insists upon dominating every situation. Such a woman would rather have a husband who bullied her than one who took no notice of her. She will stand any amount of criticism, but if the poor man fails to observe a new hat or a new toilette his indifference is resented as an insult.

Jealousy is another tribute exacted by this type of woman as a proof of love. I once knew a man shackled to a whirlwind wife who told me he had discovered that the only way to manage her was to raise an occasional storm himself. By stealing her thunder he created the scene without which peace became for her monotony.

Death Toll Mounts In Japanese Disaster

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Nagasaki, Sept. 3.—According to the captain of the Shinyo Maru, which arrived in Nagoya today from Yokohama, no building is in sight except the walls of the mitsui Bussan Kaisha and Yokohama Specie Bank's offices, the interiors of both of which, however, have been destroyed. Thousands of the refugees in the port are half-drowned by the flood caused by the bursting of the city water-pipes.

The fire in Tokio appears to have subsided at five o'clock this this afternoon. It is probable that this means that there was nothing inflamable left. The Chinese Legation has been burned down. Order is gradually being restored. General Fukuda has been appointed to direct martial law in Tokio. The inmates of Tokio Prison, including the Socialists recently arrested, were set free when the prison was endangered by fire.

An Army aeroplane will fly between Tokio and Osaka daily from tomorrow to carry important news and official mails.

The wonderful activities of newspaper reporters, together with repairs to a few wires and rails, are enabling publication of reports of eye-witnesses.

(Nihon Dempo)

Nagoya, Sept. 4.—An order from the Department of Communications has been received by all Communications Bureaus in the provinces instructing them not to accept for the time being any mails, parcel post, money-order, telegram, telephone, and other kinds of mails addressed to areas affected.

A head-quarters for the Execution of Martial Law was established in the Department of War, with General Fukuda as a commander. The jurisdiction is to cover for the present Tokio and Kanagawa Provinces only.

(Nihon Dempo)

Osaka, Sept. 4.—Prince Shimadzu Tadashige was crushed to death at his villa at Oiso.

Prince Kitoiada of Kachonomiya, is understood to have been among passengers who were all buried alive by the collapse of the First tunnel of Yokosuka when the train was passing through it.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Osaka, Sept. 4.—Oshima, the largest island of the Idzu Island group, has suddenly sunk into the sea, according to an unconfirmed report reaching here today. The entire population of the island is said to have been drowned.

The Idzu, or Izu-a-shichi-to, comprise seven islands stretching in a southerly direction from a point near the Bay of Tokio. A smoking volcano is on one of the islands and three other islands have active volcanoes.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Nagasaki, Sept. 4 (8.18 a.m.).—About 4,000 telegrams addressed to Tokio, Yokohama and the neighboring districts had been received at Nagasaki up to Monday night, and were shipped to Tokio on board the cruiser Idzumu.

The Relief Bureau announce that 250,000 houses were destroyed in Tokio and that the casualties were 130,000.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Osaka, Sept. 3.—It is reported that the Italian and French Embassies have been destroyed.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Osaka, Sept. 3 (8.40 p.m.).—The Government is boldly facing three gigantic problems arising out of the greatest disaster in the history of Japan.

The first problem is that of providing food, shelter and clothes for over 2,000,000 people in Tokio and many more millions in the other cities and districts affected. The Commandeering Act will enable the authorities to requisition the necessary material and labor. Relief work is also being organised throughout the nation.

The second problem is that of maintaining peace and order in Tokio and other cities, where already disorder, looting and violance are reported. Martial law and other military measures have been adopted to cope with this problem.

The third problem is that of the reconstruction of the national capital and other cities, as well as railways, telegraphs, telephones and roads. It is estimated that at least £1,000,000,000 will be required before the reconstruction is completed. The entire people of Japan are determined bravely to bear the unprecedented national trial.

Osaka is peaceful and quiet, but people realise that the relief of millions of their compatriots and the saving of the Empire depend largely upon them.

(Reuter's Service)

Brussels, Sept. 3.—The Observatory at Uccle states that earthquake shocks continue in Japan. The seismographs of the observatory registered three more shocks yesterday at 2.59 (a.m.), 9.39 (a.m.) and 23.51 (11.51 p.m.). The first was of considerable violence while the others were of lesser intensity.

(Reuter's Service)

London, Sept. 3.—The King has telegraphed to the Emperor of Japan expressing his horror at the appalling disaster and his profound sympathy with His Imperial Majesty in the overwhelming catastrophe resulting in loss of life and property and untold sufferings for thousands.

(Reuter's Service)

London, Sept. 3.—A telegram from Tokio, to the Japanese Consul at Liverpool confirms that Yokohama, Kamakura and the Yokosuka naval base have been totally destroyed. It adds that eight districts out of fifteen in Tokio area have been partially destroyed. The fires are not yet under control in some districts. All the bridges over the River Sumida, which traverse Tokio, were carried away by the tidal flood. The Island of Kashima, 30 miles from Tokio, is in eruption.

(Exclusive China Press)

Washington, Sept. 3.—The State Department has received no word of the fate of the American Embassy in Tokio and anxiety is increasing concerning the fate of Ambassador Cyrus E. Woods, his family and members of the embassy staff.

(Eastern News Agency)

Shanghai, Sept. 4.—A special despatch to the Eastern News Agency from the Osaka Asahi reports that the damage done to Tokio is calculated to amount to about five thousand million (5,000,000,000) yen and that telegraphic communication between Osaka and Tokio was re-opened on September 3 at 1.50 p.m. As a result, before all other telegrams, adds the same despatch, personal telegrams from the Chiefs of all the Powers, expressing their deepest sympathy, which had for some time been withheld in the Osaka Telegraph Office owing to the interruption of communication between Tokio and Osaka, were immediately forwarded to Tokio.

(Nihon Dempo)

Osaka, Sept. 3.—Groups of Koreans, numbering about 200, who were driven out of the capital by virtue of the martial law which was proclaimed yesterday noon, have found their way into Hachioji, a weaving town near Tokio. They were armed with various weapons and show disquieting tendencies. The police authorities of the town decided to allow government officials and members of Young Men's Associations to arm themselves to cope with the menace of Koreans. The Koreans are said to have connexions with Tokio and Yokohama. Their movements are closely watched.

Among the refugees who are encamped in the nighborhood of Sumida river, there were many who threw themselves into the river out of intolerable pains of hunger. Cadabres of thus voluntarily drowned are floating in the river in great number.

ROYALITY ARE VICTIMS

(Eastern News Agency)

Shanghai, Sept. 4 (1.30 p.m.).—A special despatch to the Eastern News Agency from the Osaka Asahi states that the Throne has donated a sum of Yen 10,000,000 out of the privy purse and the government has also decided to defray nine million (9,000,000) Yen as relief funds.

A special despatch to the Eastern News Agency from the Osaka Asahi says that among those, who, it has come to light up to the present, have been killed in the earthquake, are His Royal Highness Prince Hirotada Kacho at Yokosuka tunnel, Her Royal Highness Princess Yamashina (aged 12) at Kamakura, Her Royal Highness Princess Kanin (aged 18) at Odawara, Prince Matsukata, an elder statesman, at Kamakura, and Prince Tadashige Shimadzu at Osaki.

Another despach to the Eastern News Agency from the Osaka Asahi reports that an island has suddenly emerged from the sea this side of Oshima Island.

(Eastern News Agency)

Peking, Sept. 3.—According to a wireless message from the radio station at Haranomachi, Japan, to the wireless station at Shuanchiao, Kamakura, Yokosuka and Yokohama have been completely demolished by the tidal waves, earthquake and conflagrations with no house remaining, and it is more than likely that the Yokosuka Admiralty Port has been completely ruined. All the vessels on the sea are aground. Yenoshima and Kamakura have turned into mires. Oshima Island is now furiously erupting.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Osaka, Sept. 4.—Eyewitnesses' stories from Tokio state that many refugees died from the great heat from the conflagration, which at one time registered 150 degrees Fahrenheit.

The sufferings of the millions of refugees east of Shidzuoka have been aggravated by torrential rains which have been falling since Sunday evening.

Scores of thousands of citizens of Tokio sought refuge in the direction of the Sumida River. Some frenzied men and women, hungry, fatigued and maddened, threw themselves into the River, where innumerable dead bodies are floating.

Tens of thousands assembled in Uyeno Park, presenting a pitiable scene. The aged and sick were trampled to death or were lying dying.

The Ryogokubashi bridge across the Sumida was seriously damaged and later collapsed under the weight of a thousand refugees, the majority of whom were precipitated into the river and drowned.

Another well-known bridge across the same river also gave way and about 3,000 persons flung into the river.

Another eye-witness from Hakone reports that there is not a single house standing at Miyanoshita. The Fujiya Hotel has collapsed.

An explosion took place at Owakidani.

DESTRUCTION AT YOKOHAMA

(Exclusive China Press)

Osaka, Sept. 4.—Boats from the steamer London Maru were landed at Yokohama today and members of the crews, on returning to the ship, reported that bodies were scattered everywhere throughout the city.

Odawara was swept by a tidal wave.

Lieutenant Akhano arrived here by airplane from the stricken district today, bringing messages from the foreign minister and urging immediate relief. Four thousand bags of rice are being rushed to Tokio.

The minister of marine has sent wireless messages to all Japanese warships directing them to engage in relief work. Osaka has raised a fund of 20,000 yen and Kobe 10,000 yen. Both cities are rushing rice and other supplies to the devastated area.

The Nagoya division hears from Tokio that the Sozama airdrome, the foreign affairs building, and the buildings occupied by the departments of finance and education in Tokio have been burned.

Later.—Another special despatch to the Eastern News Agency from the Osaka Asahi dated September 4 (10.30 a.m.) says that it is authoritatively reported that the dead in Tokio have up to the present numbered one hundred and fifty thousand (150,000). As there is a fear of the Ichigaya Prison being destroyed by fire, 1,700 prisoners there have been set free.

I thought peepul from the Twin Cities maybe had twins, I sed. I thought that was why they called them Twin Cities, I sed.

You thought, did you? sed Pa. Well, sed Pa, you have thought a lot of things in yure sweet yung life, Bobbie, sed Pa, and meast of the time you have thought rong, sed Pa. I guess you git that habit of loose thinking from yure mother's fokes, sed Pa. All our side of the fambly have been cleer and Viggerus thinkers, sed Pa.

Biggerus talkers, you meen, sed Ma. Bobbie, sed Ma, Minneapolis and Saint Paul is the Twin Cities, sed Ma, thay are so called beekaus it is 2 large cities close together.

You and me is close together, I sed to Ma. Are we Twins?

No, sed Ma. Ma was laffing. No, Bobbie, she sed. Twins must have the saim pairents, sed Ma.

Who was the pairents of Saint Paul and Minneapolis? I sed.

Run along and play, sed Ma, you are pestering me.

But I want to know I sed. If they call Minneapolis and Saint Paul the Twin Cities, I sed, why doant thay call New York and Brooklyn the Twin Cities? I sed.

Beekaus New York and Brooklyn is called Grater New York, sed Ma.

Why doant thay call them Grater Broklyn, I sed.

Bobbie, sed Ma, if you doant want to run run along and play, I shall have to send you to bed, sed Ma.

So I runned along to play, but I dident feel like playing.

Life is a funny thing, wen a kid wants to play his pairents tells him to quit playing and do sum choars, and wen he doant want to run along and play they tell him to. I cant figger it out, and I cant figger out why thay shud call 2 towns Twin Cities, the only Twins I ever seen dident look anthing like towns.

Maybe wen Pa's Aunt Jenny-veev cums I will find out from her why thay call them the Twin Cities, but maybe she will be a old grouch like my other Aunt that caim onst to see us, she toald me that childern shud be seen and not herd, so I stuck around ware she was all the time and then she toald Ma that I was in the way.

I guess I wont rite no moar tonite. I have got Spring Feever only it is Summer wich aint no time to have Spring Feever but lots of things is Quear to me.

-:- Little Mothers -:-

BY MARION RYAN

Mothercraft, a movement for the better preparation of girls for motherhood, has now been adopted in numerous American and Canadian board schools. It started in the State of Massachusetts not as part of a school curriculum, but merely in classes after school hours. Then that tremendously powerful organisation the American Federation of Women's Clubs, with its million or more members, took it up and insisted that it should be taught in certain schools throughout the country.

More than half the babies born in the world are taken care of by older brothers and sisters ranging from six to thirteen years of ago. The wonder is that so many survive the experience, for not only do these older brothers and sisters know nothing of the care of children, but the mothers themselves have little knowledge to pass on to them, and when the small girls come home from school with a definite idea of how the baby should be handled, what he should eat, and how he should be kept clean and healtny, their mothers welcome any information gladly.

The mothercraft school course is restricted to twelve lessons. The first few lessons are concerned with carriage, posture, correct habits of eating and sleeping, and other principles of good health. From these the young pupils go on to the proper care of the baby in the home, they have a large doll as a model, and the teacher is usually the school nurse, or some other qualified person, who explains the diet, bathing, and sleeping of the baby, and emphasises the value of a clean, happy home to child life.

When the course is finished the girls write essays, summarising what they have learned, and put it to practical use in their homes. Very often the parents become so interested in what the children are learning that they prime a small daughter with questions for the mothercraft teacher, and in a New York school recently the mothercraft teacher discovered that an Italian father had taken his little daughter's book of mothercraft and translated the twelve lessons into Italian for a married daughter.

But mothercraft is not confined to schools throughout the United States. It is taught in the continuation classes as well, in social settlements and in church groups, and has become a feature of missionary work—the little girls on Indian reservations and the Mexican children in California take the courses as enthusiastically as the board school children in New York City.

An especially comprehensive application of the principles and methods of mothercraft has been undertaken in Canada. Beginning experimentally in Winnipeg with a few classes, the Victorian Order of Nurses extended its mothercraft instruction to the schools of many communities, even introducing it into French-Canadian villages, where it has been received enthusiastically.

The Girl Scouts and Camp-Fire Girls of America, in some of their centres, are given mothercraft lessons and regard it as one of the most interesting studies, for where is the girl, however much of a Scout or a Camp-Fire worker, who can resist the charm of a large smiling baby doll to be dressed, undressed, and bathed?

Description Of Yokohama

Yokohama is the principal port of Japan and was opened to foreign trade in July, 1859. It is situated on Yokohama Bay on the western side of the Gulf of Yedo, about 18 miles from Tokio. The surrounding country is hilly and 75 miles away Mount Fuji rears its snow-capped head.

The native portion of the city is compactly built with tiled roofs, but of late years many large foreign style buildings have been erected. The town is divided into two parts, the Western district being occupied by the 'foreign settlement'. Beyond the plain on which the town is built rises a semi-circle of hills called 'The Bluff', which was thickly dotted with hand-some foreign houses. No news has been received concerning any of the homes on 'The Bluff.'

Along the waterfront the district, like in Shanghai, is known as the Bund, adjacent to which stand many of the city's principal business houses and hotels, also the United Club. The streets of the city are paved, drained and curbed—or were.

The English Episcopal, French Catholic and the Union Protestant Churches are on The Bluff. The Public Hall, containing a theater and assembly rooms, is situated at the top of Camp Hill. The Prefectoral and Municipal offices were brick structures on commanding sights.

The harbor, reported destroyed, was greatly exposed, but had two breakwaters of an aggregate length of 12,000 feet which almost enclosed the entire anchorage. The Yokohama Dry Dock Company had three dry docks of 515, 481, and 376 feet. All are reported to have been destroyed.

The Japanese population of the city is about 425,000, according to late census returns. The importance of the foreign community can be judged from the fact that they pay approximately 40 percent of the city's taxes.

A Treasure-Trove of Humor From His Newly Discovered Newspaper Writings

THE SENSITIVE COL. JAY

THE sun is shining brightly, and the birds are singing merrily in the trees! All nature wears an aspect of peace and harmony. On the porch of a little hotel in a neighboring county a stranger is sitting on a bench waiting for the train, quietly smoking his pipe.

Presently a tall man wearing boots and a slouch hat, steps to the door of the hotel from the inside with a six shooter in his hand and fires. The man on the bench rolls over with a loud yell as the bullet grazes his ear. He springs to his feet in amazement and wrath and shouts.

"What are you shooting at me for?"

The tall man advances with his slouch hat in his hand, bows and says: "Beg pardon, sah. I am Colonel Jay, sah, and I understood you to insult me, sah, but I see I was mistaken. Am very glad I did not kill you, sah.

"I insult you—how?" inquires the stranger. "I never said a word."

"You tapped on the bench, sah, as much as to say you was a woodpeckah, sah, and I belong to the other faction. I see now that you was only knockin' the ashes from you' pipe, sah. I ask yo' pahdon, and that you will come in and have a drink with me, sah, to show that you do not harbor any ill-feeling after a gentleman apologises to you, sah."

SPRING
A Dialect Poem

Ah, dinna ye fash yr' sel' hinny,
Varum kanst du nicht the thing see,
Don't always be kicking, me darlint;
Toujours le meme chose will not be.

Tout le monde will grow brighter, ye spalpeen;
Und das zeit will get better, you bet;
Arrah! now will yez stop dot complainin'
Und a creat pig quick move on you get.

Ach, Gott! give de monka a peanutte;
Und schmile some, for sweet spring is here,

Something To Think About

By Bruno Lessing

REFORMING REFORMERS

An appeal has just come in from a group of people who are interested in kindness to animals and who want me to contribute.

I have always been kind to animals. I never harmed a goat or a rhinoceros in my life. I never kicked a cow. I like to see horses resting and playing in the fields: therefore, I always take a taxi, instead of a horse-drawn vehicle, and I do not bet on horse races.

Why is it that all the kind-hearted reformers in this country do not get together and accomplish something? Why is it that when so many people are really generous and good-hearted, they squander their energy in so many different directions?

There are organisations that are earnestly trying to help Chinese babies. Others want to protect fish and game. Every evil in the world has an organisation in this land to combat it. True, something is accomplished. But not enough. The evil remains. So does the organisation. And, very often, you find someone getting a salary out of it.

The spectacle of children of the age of 8 and 9, working in factories, presents one of the oldest evils in this country. Bills have been introduced into legislatures, speeches have been made, volumes have been written—and still the evil exists.

Surely, these children deserve greater consideration than a horse or a trout or a partridge. Surely, their emancipation is more important than that of a heathen. Why cannot all these reformers drop their particular fad for a while, let the heathen wallow in his mud and worship his drum or his toes, let the truck-driver kick his horse, let the hunter shoot game out of season, let any other abuse go on for a while and concentrate upon the everlasting wiping-out of this one great crime against civilization? If they did, they would accomplish something.

And then they could all stick together and tackle something else.

In warfare, the victorious army conserves its strength, concentrates upon the most important objective and does not allow itself to be swerved from its course by any minor considerations.

If all the reformers of this country could get together, organise under an intelligent leader and attack the evils that beset us in the order of their importance, they would form the most formidable army in the world.

Words From The Lips Of Wise Men

Music is the medicine of the mind.

Men are never so good or bad as their opinions.

Custom is the very powerful master of all things.

Envy is the awkward homage that inferiority pays to merit.

You live rightly if you take care to be what you are supposed to be.

A favor becomes doubly valuable when granted with courage.

LEAGUE WANTS MORE FACTS ON NAURU MANDATE

Asks Whether Chinese Laborers Are To Be Recruited

(Reuter's Service)

Geneva, Sept. 1.—The Permanent Mandates Commission's report to the Council of the League of Nations on the subject of the island of Nauru desires to know whether the authorities will utilise the services of the Hongkong Government or of any other agency in China for recruiting Chinese workers, and whether there is a Chinese-speaking official at Nauru responsible to the Administrator.

The Commission's report on the island under Japanese mandate says that the general form of the Japanese report greatly assisted the Commission's work, but regrets that owing to delay in transmission it has not received the promised text of decress and ordinances relating to the territory.

The Commission is anxious to receive particulars of the powers of the Director of the South Seas Office and fuller information of the participation of natives in the Administration.

It hopes that the next report will contain information regarding the application to labour of the conventions adopted at the International Labour Conferences, and, particularly, whether sugar employees will be allowed to benefit from the conventions and whether the provisions for the protection of labor will apply to Government employees, particularly in the Angaur mines.

The Commission requests more detailed information on importation of intoxicants and desires to know whether the phosphate mining undertaking is monopolistic and what steps will be taken to protect the natives from the venereal diseases prevalent amongst immigrants.

CHINESE BODIES TO HOLD HARDING MEMORIAL RITES

Over 30 Organisations To Join In Service Next Sunday

Over 30 Chinese Charitable Societies in Shanghai have arranged to hold a memorial service for the late President Harding on Sunday, September 9.

The Protestant and Catholic Churches will join in this service.

Arrangements are now in progress to make the occasion a memorable one. Special buttons with a photograph of the late President are being struck, and the addresses given by representative men at the meeting, together with a eulogy of the late President Harding, will be embodied in book form, in both Chinese and English, to form an interesting record of this service, possibly the first of its kind ever attempted by the Chinese people here.

It is intended that this memorial service shall not only do honor to the memory of the late President Harding, but shall seek to keep before the public the work for world peace inaugurated at the Washington Conference, and the many charitable works in which America has been a large participant under President Harding's leadership.

The chairman of the Memorial Service will be Mr. Chu Pao-san, and it is expected that Consul-General Edwin S. Cunningham, as well as representatives from the American Chamber of Commerce and American Association, will be present.

Major General March Marries Cora McEntee

London, Aug. 25.—Major General Peyton C. March, former Chief of Staff of the American army, and Miss Cora Virginia McEntee of New York were married today at the registry office, Buckingham Palace Road. The attaches to the American Embassy in London were witnesses to the ceremonies.

General March met the bride, who is 26 years old, in Rome three years ago.

Weather Report

Sept. 3.—The high pressures are extending over central China and over our regions. A small depression is crossing the mouth of the Yangtsze ENEward. A cyclonic center is located between Yap and Guam.

No telegrams from Japan. Variable winds a long the China coast.

Morning of Sept. 4.—Cloudy and cooler weather. The glass is rising rather quickly. N.E.ly wind.

VESSEL FIRED UPON

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Ichang, Sept. 1.—The steamer Wanshien was heavily fired on near Fowchow on her voyage up the river. Many bullets hit the ship, passing through the officers' cabins. One bullet passed through the bed-rail of the Chief Engineer's room, and then through the wardrobe spoiling his clothes. The only casualty was a favourite Persian cat which was hit and had to be destroyed later.

The steamer reports that Chunking is again normal, the besieging troops having been withdrawn.
